

Karen Garrett earned her B.A degree in Vocal Performance from Cal State East Bay and her Masters in Choral Conducting from the University of Southern California. She was Artistic Director of the Riverside Master Chorale at Riverside City College and is currently the Choral Director at Santiago High school in Corona. Her choirs consistently earn superior ratings at local and national festivals. She has conducted ensembles at CMEA State Festivals and in venues such as Davies Symphony Hall, Orchestra Hall, the Kennedy Center and Carnegie Hall. Mrs. Garrett has guest conducted at the Anaheim District Choral Festival and has adjudicated numerous festivals. She served on the State American Choral Directors Association Board as Repertoire and Standards Chairman for Women's Choirs and is currently serving Southern California Vocal Association as Past President. Mrs. Garrett has given numerous presentations on sight reading and the music standards to professional music organizations such as CCDA, CMEA and SCVA. Mrs. Garrett was voted Teacher of the Year for the Corona/Norco School District for the year 2006-2007. Her new book "Sight Singing for Festival Choirs" will be available August 2019 through Master Works Press.
